One of the capital's most distinguished hotels created with luxurious English elegance. Offering fine views over the Royal Park and chic shops of Knightsbridge, Mandarin Oriental Hyde Park is a highly fashionable address in London.

Mandarin Oriental Hyde Park, London will introduce the award-winning cuisine of Lyon-born chef Daniel Boulud to the UK when Bar Boulud opens in the hotel in spring 2010. Designed as a French inspired bistro and wine bar, Bar Boulud, London will follow the successful format of Bar Boulud in New York which has achieved significant acclaim.

Bar Boulud, London will bring into play French techniques applied to the finest ingredients. A full bistro menu will include signature terrines and pâtés made on site under the direction of Gilles Verot, one of France's most highly acclaimed charcutiers. With a focus on Burgundy and the Rhône Valley, an impressive selection of wines, by the glass and by the bottle, will feature old world wines as well as new world selections made in the Rhône or Burgundy spirit.
